REITERATE RIGHT TO SEARCH MAILS

Britain and France Offer Identical Memorandums on Dispute.

PROMISE TO MINIMIZE DELAYS

Both Nations Present Papers in Reply to Note of May 24, Which Branded Practice as Lawless—No Concession on One Point.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Identical memorandums from the British and French governments, replying to the American protest against seizure of neutral mails, were delivered to the state department by the embassies here. The text was not made public, but the allies are understood to give renewed promises that every effort will be made to minimize delay and annoyance caused by examination, but to insist upon certain legal rights in regard to mails which the United States has denied.

The complaint of the American government has been based upon the contention that many vessels have been diverted from the high seas into British seaports to give the British censors jurisdiction. There is no indication that the new memorandum makes any concession of principle on that point.

Reply is made in the memorandum to the American note of May 24, characterizing the allies' treatment of mails as a "lawless practice" and saying that "only a radical change in the present British and French policy restoring the United States to its full rights as a neutral power will satisfy the government."

Reasonable Delays Upheld.

The allies claim that, as the United States admits the right of censorship for purely war purposes, it cannot rightfully object to reasonable delays inevitable to that censorship.

The new communication is the second to come from the allies in the mails controversy, which began January 4 with the United States entering a vigorous protest.

On May 24 the United States replied by complaining vigorously against the allies' method and by declaring the allied governments had proceeded "to deprive neutral governments of the benefits of these assurances" by forcing vessels off their course into British ports to gain "illegal jurisdiction."

Officials of the state department had become impatient at the long delay of the allies in answering the note of May 24.

It is expected that the text of the allied communication will be made public later by the governments concerned.

The state department has been advised that the British reply to the American blacklist protest soon will be delivered here. There has been no indication as to its contents.

ITALIANS MAKE FURTHER GAINS

Drive on Trieste Has Yielded Thirty Thousand Prisoners.

BRITISH TROOPS REACH SERES

Are at Outskirts of Important Town in Greek Macedonia Which is Strongly Guarded by Teutons—Allies Gain in West.

London, Oct. 13.—Another step forward in their quest of Trieste has been made by the Italians in the region south of Gorizia, additional points of vantage having been captured and 1,771 men made prisoners.

In this region, which is about sixteen miles northwest of Trieste, and in the Julian Alps to the east, the Italians from August 6 to the present report that they have captured 39,881 Austrians.

On the Carso plateau heavy Austrian attacks against the positions recently taken by the Italians have been repulsed.

Along the entire Eastern Transylvania front the Rumanians are still in retreat, and in the north also are beginning to fall back before the troops of the Teutonic allies, according to Berlin.

Bucharest says, however, that attacks at various points on their northern and northwestern fronts have been repelled.

British Near Seres.

The British troops have reached the outskirts of the important town of Seres, in Greek Macedonia, north of Lake Thabnos, having driven in their opponents from the outlying districts. The town is strongly held by the Teutons.

Westward the village of Brod, which lies in Serbia southeast of Monastir, has been captured by the Serbians.

Both Berlin and Sofia report the repulse of attacks along the Cerna river and on both sides of the Vardar.

That the British have gained some additional ground north of Thiepval, south of the Ancre river in France and on the Sars-Guebucourt line is indicated in the Berlin official communication, which says British attacks here failed "for the most part" before the German curtain of fire.

West of Sailly-Saillais the French have made a further advance.

South of the Somme violent artillery duels are in progress, especially between Genemont and Chaulnes.

In the town of Ablaincourt the Germans and French are engaged in hard-to-hand fighting.

ANOTHER KILLED IN RIOTS

Score More Wounded in New Jersey Strike at Bayonne.

Bayonne, N. J., Oct. 13.—One man was killed and at least a score wounded, two so seriously they are not expected to live, in a pitched battle here between striking employees of the Standard Oil company and the police.

The fight was the culmination of a series of disturbances that began Wednesday.

New Jersey militiamen aided in dispersing the rioters, who were terrorizing the city by looting and burning.

Half a dozen sheds overlooking the oil refineries were set on fire before the authorities were able to restore a semblance of order by firing volleys of rifle and pistol shots into the ranks of the strikers and their sympathizers.

Isador Natilsky, twenty-two years old, a lawyer, who had no part in the rioting, was killed.

An anniversary sale of more than ordinary interest is that of the H. F. Michael Co., celebrating the 12th year of business in Brainerd. Mr. Michael was with George A. Gray, in Duluth, as advertising manager and later department manager. His first store in Brainerd was located at 612 Front street, where he was six years. His successful methods of merchandising made necessary larger quarters and the Beare block, whose main floor was designed to suit his dry-goods business requirements, was then taken over. He has been in the Beare block the past six years. George A. Beare has been associated with Mr. Michael the past five years.

Chances for Flood Greater than Ever

Fargo, N. D., Oct. 13.—Fargo citizens, who finished a 800 mile automobile trip inspecting the drains leading to the Red River, reported today that chances for a flood are greater than ever.

They claim that water that in former years took from 48 hours to a week to get to the river channel, with the present drainage system empties in almost as soon as it falls.

Plans are being made to ask for Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota cooperation and ask federal aid.

The claim that the channel of the Red River is not large enough to carry away all the water.

J., Oct. 13.—Although fearing that Friday, the 13th, might prove a bloody day, the police and citizens are attempting to quell the oil workers strike without calling out the militia, but with one additional death this morning it is uncertain if this will be possible as the strikers are in a fighting mood. MEN WANTED

Ten men wanted on Third street paving Monday morning at 7 A. M.
Report on the job.

LOUIS KNUTSEN,
City Engineer.

A Garden in the Air.

The highest garden in the world is said to be the Alpine region of botany, which was laid out by the late Canon Chanoix, formerly rector of the Hospice of Little St. Bernard. It is situated at an elevation of 2,200 meters, or 7,150 feet. Here are to be found almost all species of mountain flowers, not only those common in the Alps, Pyrenees, Carpathians, the Cas-casus and the Balkans, but even from Tartary Himalaya. The canon conceived the idea in 1888, but it was not until 1902 that his project became effective. In the latter year the commune of Thuille gave him the land.—London Globe.

A Novel Revenge.

Cook—Yes, my mistress is a prima donna and a horrible creature. She treats me like the dirt beneath her feet, but I revenge myself by opening the drawing room window when she is not at home and by howling with all my might so that the neighbors may think her voice is cracked.—Fleegende Blatter.

Most of the carpets made in India
are woven by boys, who are told by men watching them how many knots
of each color to tie to the warp, a single row at a time.

No More Backache For Her

Mrs. J. M. Gaskill, Etna Green, Ind., writes: "I suffered from severe backache and sharp pains. I could not stoop over, Foley Kidney Pills gave me such relief that I cannot praise them too highly." This standard remedy for kidney trouble and bladder affections can be taken with absolute safety. H. P. Dunn druggist.—mwf

Easier to Stop Now

It is easier to check a bronchial cough now than later. Coughs grow worse the longer they continue. Foley's Honey and Tar stops tickling in throat, allays inflammation and irritation, restores sore and discharging membranes to healthy condition, opens congested air passages, and affords longed for relief. H. P. Dunn, druggist.—Adv. mwf

"RIGHT OFF THE BAT"

LIVE SPORT NOTES BY A FAN

The world's baseball classic is now
history and there is no question but that the best team won. Boston's great strength on the mound again
manifested itself as it did last year,
and it will take a mighty strong team to dislodge the present world's champions from their high pedestal.

Ernest Shore, the big right-hander
of the Red Sox, again came through with a pitching feat of the finished variety and had the Dodgers eating out of his hand throughout the contest. He "shore" is there.

Everett Scott, at shortstop for the Sox, also played a big part in his team's success. During the most important series of the year, between
Boston and Detroit two weeks ago,
Scott played at his best, proving his nerve under fire. He is, at the present time, perhaps the most valuable cog in the great Boston machine.

He formerly played shortstop for St.
Paul and the fans there will never forget some of the almost impossible plays he has pulled off while in a St.
Paul uniform.

If Les Bush hadn't won a game occasionally for the Philadelphia Athletics, the cellar champs, they might have fallen right through the bottom of the league.

We are extremely thankful to learn that Brandell, Little Falls' great right fielder, who graduates from Michigan next spring, has received an offer from fast company, and we are only hoping that a few more of that bunch who showed us up last summer, will also be kidnapped by some manager in the big time.

Les Hitt, who came to the front
quite rapidly during the past season, has received an appointment in the mail service and may be lost to the ball team when the roll is called to open the season of 1917. Les developed into a really good pitcher with plenty of nerve and it is hoped that he will be available when the next season rolls around. Ironton is hot on the trail of the young southpaw and he will be a much in demand twirler next spring.

Today is Friday the 13th, so watch
your step.

A Historic Spot.

Lindithgow palace, on the shore of the beautiful sheet of water of that name in Scotland, is somewhat square and heavy looking and is full of historic interest. Lindithgow was the birthplace of Mary, queen of Scots; in Lindithgow church James IV, of Scotland was forewarned by an apparition
of the coming disaster at Flodden
Field; in its streets the regent Murray
was shot; close by the town Edward
I. had two ribs broken by his horse
the night before Falkirk, and on its loch a chancellor of the exchequer,
bent on economy, issued instructions
that the royal swans should be kept down to a dozen.—Argonaut.

COURAGE.

Keep up your courage, no matter what manner of troubles confront you. The shores of fortune are covered with the stranded wrecks of men of brilliant ability, but who have wanted courage, faith and decision and have therefore perished in the night of more resolute but less capable adventurers who succeeded in making port.—John Foster.

Duluth Beats Tax Rise.

Duluth, Sept. 30.—Completion of the official count showed the proposal for an additional 3-mill assessment for street improvements was defeated nearly two to one in the special referendum here Tuesday.

War Aids Dismissed.

Berlin, Sept. 30.—General von Wandel, deputy minister for war, has been dismissed from the war ministry, according to an official statement given out by the German government.

MEN WANTED

Report on the job.

LOUIS KNUTSEN,
City Engineer.

A Garden in the Air.

The highest garden in the world is said to be the Alpine region of bet-tyr, which was laid out by the late Canon Chanois, formerly rector of the Hospice of Little St. Bernard. It is situated at an elevation of 2,200 meters, or 7,150 feet. Here are to be found almost all species of mountain
flowers, not only those common in the Alps, Pyrenees, Carpathians, the Caucasus and the Balkans, but even from far off Himalaya. The canon conceived the idea in 1888, but it was not until 1902 that his project became effective. In the latter year the commune
of Thuille gave him the land.—London
Globe.

A Novel Revenge.

Cook—Yes; my mistress is a primitive and a horrible creature. She treats me like the dirt beneath her feet, but I revenge myself by opening
the drawing room window when she is not at home and by howling with all my might so that the neighbors may think her voice is cracked.—Fliegende Blätter.

Most of the carpets made in India
are woven by boys, who are told by men watching them how many knots
of each color to tie to the warp, a single row at a time.

No More Backache For Her

Mrs. J. M. Gaskill, Etta Green, Ind.
writes: "I suffered from severe backache and sharp pains. I could not sleep over. Foley Kidney Pills gave me such relief that I cannot praise
them too highly." This standard remedy for kidney trouble and bladder ailments can be taken with absolute safety. H. P. Dunn druggist.—mwf

Easier to Stop Now

It is easier to check a bronchial
cough now than later. Coughs grow
worse the longer they continue. Foley's Honey and Tar stops tickling in throat, allays inflammation and irritation, retards sore and discharging membranes to healthy condition, opens congested air passages, and Affords longed for relief. H. P. Dunn,

"RIGHT OFF THE BAT"

LIVE SPORT NOTES BY A FAN

The world's baseball classic is now
history and there is no question but that the best team won. Boston's great strength on the mound again
manifested itself as it did last year,
and it will take a mighty strong
team to dislodge the present world's champions from their high pedestal.

Ernest Shore, the big right-hander
of the Red Sox, again came through with a pitching feat of the finished
variety and had the Dodgers eating
out of his hand throughout the contest. He "shore" is there.

Everett Scott, at shortstop for the Sox, also played a big part in his team's success. During the most important series of the year, between
Boston and Detroit two weeks ago,
Scott played at his best, proving his nerve under fire. He is, at the present time, perhaps the most valuable
cog in the great Boston machine.

He formerly played shortstop for St.
Paul and the fans there will never forget some of the almost impossible
plays he has pulled off while in a St.
Paul uniform.

If Les Bush hadn't won a game occasionally for the Philadelphia Athletics, the cellar champs, they might have fallen right through the bottom of the league.

We are extremely thankful to learn
that Brandell, Little Falls' great right holder, who graduates from Michigan next spring, has received an offer from fast company, and we are only hoping that a few more of that bunch who showed us up last summer, will also be kidnapped by some manager in the big time.

Les Hitt, who came to the front
quite rapidly during the past season,
has received an appointment in the mail service and may be lost to the ball team when the roll is called to open the season of 1917. Les developed into a really good pitcher
with plenty of nerve and it is hoped that he will be available when the next season rolls around. Ironton is hot on the trail of the young southpaw and he will be a much in demand twirler next spring.

Today is Friday the 13th, so watch
your step.

A Historic Spot.
Lindilghow palace, on the shore of the beautiful sheet of water of that name in Scotland, is somewhat square
and heavy looking and is full of historic interest. Lindilghow was the birthplace of Mary, queen of Scots; in Lindilghow church James IV, of Scotland was forewarned by an apparition
of the coming disaster at Flodden
Field; in its streets the regent Murray
was shot; close by the town Edward
I. had two ribs broken by his horse
the night before Falkirk, and on its loch a chancellor of the exchequer,
bent on economy, issued instructions
that the royal swans should be kept
down to a dozen.—Argonaut.

COURAGE.

Keep up your courage, no matter what manner of troubles

stranded wrecks of men of brilliant ability, but who have wanted courage, faith and dete but less capable adventur-

DEAN MEMORIAL WINDOW IN CHURCH

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Memorial for Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Dean. Dedication to be on Sunday Morning

In writing a history of Brainerd the historian could not omit the names of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Dean, people who in their respective spheres were loved and respected by old and young folks.

It was two years last July the call came to Mrs. Dean to answer the summons from the other world, and two years last September that her husband followed her.

Mrs. Dean was a lady who was often described as the "essence of dignity." She was raised a Quaker and carried with her that spirit of devotion and sincerity characterizing such a faith. She was a member of the First Congregational church in our city and was a most faithful worker. When she passed hence we felt truly that "A mother in Israel had left us."

Mr. Dean, or better known and forever known as "Skip," was a type by himself, honest, frank and filled full of good naturedness. True to his word he won a place in the hearts of the citizens that has been envied by not a few. For some time he was trustee of the Congregational church and was active till he passed hence.

A year ago last September a committee consisting of Rev. G. P. Sheridan, P. W. Donovan and D. E. Whitney, were appointed to communicate with their heirs relative to the installation of a memorial window. The correspondence resulted in the most generous gift of $165 from Sam Dean, the only brother of "Skip" for such a memorial.

The committee finally decided on a suitable memorial and arranged with St. Germain Brothers of Duluth, the firm that made the Losey memorial window, to make a suitable memorial. It was decided to have the subject the Good Shepherd.

Thursday of this week White Brothers installed the window. It is a reproduction of B. Ploekhurst's painting "The Good Shepherd." The manufacturers are to be commended on the wonderful way they have brought the details of the picture to stand out in graphic manner. The coloring is most exquisite and cannot help but inspire the observer.

The official dedication of the window will take place on Sunday morning at the regular hour of worship. Rev. G. Phil. Sheridan, the minister, who was a very dear friend of the deceased, will preach a sermon on the "Good Shepherd" and the window will be dedicated to the cause of Christ. The service will be public and all are invited.

All Blue Diamonds Come from Brazil

BY MARGARET MASON, (Written for the United Press)

They say all blue diamonds Come from Brazil, But believe me you'll find that A lot stay there still.

Rio De Janeiro, Sept. 26 (By Mail) —On every hand in Rio de Janeiro you find clubs—the Jockey club, the Derby club, the Engineers club, the Anglo-American club, the Naval club, etc. On every hand in Rio de Janeiro you also find diamonds and in every feminine ear as well. Great blazing stones that take your breath away and your cash too if you attempt to acquire any.

"Kind hearts are more than coronets" would never be a popular motto here where earrings are more to be desired than shoes. Positively it's a poor ear indeed whose lobe doesn't sag with the weight of a huge ruby, emerald or sapphire surrounded by diamonds. Even the poorest natives and negroes, shambling along barefooted or clumping along in the ungainly native shoes whose heavy wooden soles leaves the heel exposed and have a thick piece of leather across the front for a toe hold, have their ears all duded up in gold hoops.

When it comes to rings no finger is spurned, alighted or overlooked. If some poor little feminine finger does happen to be shy its circling band of jewels it looks almost indecently nude. The men also affect several rings and elaborately jeweled one on the first finger of the right hand is the finger mark of a lawyer, doctor or scholar.

Even affections are tested here by a jeweled gauge and the depth of a man's passion for his better half is shown by the number of jewels that she wears. This appealed to me strongly at first. Think how attractive to have your husband in lieu of pouring honeyed words in your ear using earrings instead and pressing a tiara rather than a kiss on your brow To give you a precious jewel rather than to call you one certainly has its fine points but unfortunately there is another setting to this jeweled adoration.

People of moderate means actually put themselves in a poverty stricken condition in order that the wife may make an adequately jeweled impression. They pinch and scrimp and save and give their heart's blood for a pigeon blood ruby. Just imagine going without all the comforts of home just to show the neighbors how crazy your husband is about you.

I guess after all it's better to have a loving arm around your neck than a diamond necklace.

Aside from boasting the most brilliant blue white diamonds in the world, gorgeous sapphires, rubies and emeralds, Brazil makes a scrupulous rainbow showing of semi-precious stones. Tourmalines, green and pink aquamarines, amethysts, topazes, yellow and rose, tourquoise, opals and agates. In fact there are several attractive little shops devoted exclusively to the sale of these native Brazilian semi-precious stones. As for the general jewelry stores they are even more plentiful than saloons in New York and vie in numbers here with the tobacco shops and lottery places.

Even the birds of the air and the bugs of the earth are pressed into service as jewelry. Out of the many green and bronze and iridescent, red Brazilian beetles, unique scarf pins, hat pins, brooches, necklaces and bracelets are made. Tiny opalescent beetles too fragile to use in this manner are mounted in groups of two and three between disks of crystal bound in gold or silver and used as pendants. Some of the gorgeous butterfly wings are also used in this manner. Perhaps the most unique and attractive of all these concoctions is the tiny ruby and bronze or green and gold head of a humming bird it's beak sheathed in gold set in the middle of a pair of gold metal outspread wings on a bar pin.

Other jewels as omnipresent and multitudinous as the kind the lapidaries recognize are those of which Cornelia once boasted.

Little sons and daughters are indeed very popular in Rio and no family seems complete without at least four or five. They are bright little blackeyed kiddies but all seem to have tendencies toward a pasty pallor rather than the healthy brown or apple red cheeks of our own husky North American offspring. This is due no doubt to the fact that their unskipped parents drag them at all hours to the cinemas and serve strong Brazilian coffee and other heavy native dishes indiscriminately and promiscuously to tender tummies.

Rio kiddies all show a nonchalant disregard for lingerie and unless they

Little sons and daughters are indeed very popular in Rio and no family seems complete without at least four or five. They are bright little black-eyed kiddies but all seem to have tendencies toward a pasty pallor rather than the healthy brown or apple red cheeks of our own husky North American offspring. This is due no doubt to the fact that their misquidated parents drag them at all hours to the cinemas and serve strong Brazilian coffee and other heavy native dishes indiscriminately and protectively to tender tummies.

Rio kiddies all show a nonchalant disregard for lingerie and unless they

THE SILENT VOTE

The politicians are all at sea. The wisecracks may say that they know what is going to happen in the fall election, but they are bluffing. The leaders and experts on both sides are merely prophesying, as usual, what they want to happen. As to the actual result of the vote on Nov. 7th, the politicians know probably less than the ordinary citizen. Some of them are blinded by the game they are playing, carried away by their hopes or fears and deceived by their environment. The old, experienced ones are not fooled, but puzzled—puzzled by the "silent vote."

That vote is of comparatively recent origin. Middle-aged voters can remember a time when it was easy to tell how almost any citizen would cast his ballot. Men felt definitely into the list of republicans or democrats and stayed there. Each party worked to "get out its vote", and as a rule there wasn't much change in any community except in so far as one party "got out" its voters more effectively than the other. The stay-at-homes negatively decided the elections.

Representatives of one of the big parties estimate that this silent vote in the present campaign amounts to as much as 50 per cent of the whole electorate. They find in their test polls in various parts of the country that half the voters are not telling anybody how they intend to vote.

Many of these citizens doubtless keep silent because, in the new pride of political independence, they consider that it's no party's business how they are going to vote. Many of them, possibly the majority, do not know. They have not yet made their decision. But they will know before election day, trust them for that.

The growth of this silent citizenship is perhaps the most hopeful thing in American public life. It means that our electorate is more intelligent and thoughtful than ever before, more given to weighing issues and men. It is a guarantee of better and wiser government. And it is a guarantee of cleaner, more rational politics. For that "silent vote" stands ready to judge and condemn any party that does not live up to its own best traditions or faithfully represent the aspirations of the nation.

That Los Angeles scientist who has invented "the perfect human food," combining in small compass, at low cost, a product that suffices for all gastronomic needs, shouldn't be surprised because the public is apathetic about it. The manna that fell from heaven was just such a food; and yet the Children of Israel grumbled and yearned for the flesh-pots and the melons and cucumbers of Egypt.

After General Goethals gets the railroad labor problem solved and the Mississippi damned and channeled and the southern swamps drained and the western deserts irrigated, he might be turned loose to recruit the army and navy up to the standard established by the new preparedness measures. Enlisting soldiers and sailors is certainly a man-size job in this non-militaristic country.

"MAD KING" OTTO OF BAVARIA DEAD

Copenhagen, Oct. 12.—King Otto of Bavaria, Europe's "mad king," died suddenly at the castle of Fuerstenreid, where he had been confined, insane, several years.

The "mad king" of Bavaria, seventy at the time of his death, startled Europe with his eccentricities before he was declared incapable of ruling, Nov. 5, 1873, and was succeeded by his cousin, King Ludwig III.

He had succeeded his brother, King Ludwig II. In 1886, when Ludwig committed suicide by throwing himself into a lake during a fit of insanity. His uncle, the Regent Luitpold, was, however, the real ruler of Bavaria.

Several years ago the king was imprisoned in the Fuerstenreid castle. Though in the midst of rich furnishings he is reported to have lived like a savage, refusing to have his hair or nails cut and avoiding water and soap.

CONTINUE FIGHT FOR BIGGER ARMY

Preparedness Campaign to be Carried on Vigorously.

UNDERWOOD ON THE STUMP

Alabama Senator on Three Weeks' Campaigning Tour in the West—Negro Labor Problem is Growing in South—Ragsdale in the Thick of the Political Warfare.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 14.—[Special.]—The campaign for preparedness was not completed with the army and naval programs adopted by the last session of congress. The agitators for a larger army have not forsaken their position, but with the coming session of congress their demands will be renewed and vigorously pressed.

"What's a million men?" asked a military man the other day in discussing the subject of an army. "The training of a million men will not make an army. If the United States means business it will train and have equipment for 4,000,000 men. If this country decides that it is going to remain on a peace basis there is no need of going any further or even in going as far as we have gone. Talk about getting a million men without resort to compulsory service is another idle dream. What has been done for the army does not amount to anything if we are ever to fight any one of the great powers engaged in the European war."

Laying the Foundations.

The advocates of a great army are laying the foundations for a strenuous campaign after the election is over. Of course they realize now that it would be useless to try to attract any attention to the subject of the unprepared condition of the United States, particularly when both parties are asserting that they have taken action which means military preparation. But as soon as the interest of the people can be attracted there will be a campaign under way still further to increase the military establishment of the United States.

Oscar Underwood Campaigning.

Senator Underwood passed through Washington on his way to a three weeks' campaign tour in the west. He was not entirely jubilant over the prospect, although the committee had given him good assignments. There are three accomplishments of the administration which Oscar Underwood will not make specialties in his campaign speeches—the Adamson law, the tariff commission and the duty levied on dyestuffs. Those three things Underwood opposed with great vigor when they were before the senate. He will specialize on other accomplishments of the administration while going through the western states.

When the Antis Scored.

That was a cruel blow by the Wilson women, or the anti-suffragists. I refer to the item that was published throughout the nation saying that the women on the Hughes special were getting fat. The blow almost killed mother. Think of 200 women traveling de luxe and 2,000,000 other women saying, "They're all getting fat!"

The Families Return.

The wives and children of congressmen are returning to Washington. The children must go to school whether there is a campaign in progress or not, and that accounts for the return to the capital of so many congressional families.

Negro Problem in the South.

The negro problem in the south no longer concerns itself with the franchise or the possible control of the blacks in politics, but the possibilities of what the negroes may do in regard to labor. There has been a disposition on the part of the southern negroes to desert the fields and farms and seek employment in towns and at places where they can be more at ease. The demand for labor in the north and the high wages paid in that section are also proving very alluring to the negro, and the south fears an emigration of the colored race which may give them a great deal of trouble.

Takes His Medicine.

If there was one man in congress more independent than all others it was Ragsdale of South Carolina. He opposed the administration several times and in no half hearted way. When the time came for his re-election he found letters in his district from Secretary Tumulty suggesting that some other man be chosen. In two campaigns Ragsdale has encountered the opposition of the administration for re-election.

But he does not sulk. He left his southern home and plunged into the campaign with energy.

Rumors From Cuba.

They have been tranquil in Cuba too long. Without a war or a revolution for several years there is a manifest disposition to "start something." Reports from the big island indicate that the Cubans may join other nations in letting blood.

Inter-Sectional Fray Features Pig-Skin Card

(By United Press)

New York, Oct. 13.—Aside from the interest which always centers in the activities of Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, Dartmouth and the other top-notch football teams of the east, Illinois university and Colgate university will hold the attention of football followers when they meet tomorrow afternoon at Urbana, Ill.

This will be the first meeting of Illinois and the husky easterners, who have been considered for some time one of the east's most powerful reasons why it should be counted first in football. Last year Colgate went through the season with only one defeat. In fact, the team was not scored upon save in its final game with Cornell, which it lost by a top-heavy score. The Army and Yale teams were two of its victims. Illinois split the honor of being big nine champions last year with Wisconsin, so the east and west will be counting two of the most powerful teams against each other. Lehigh, which hasn't done anything remarkable so far, will be Yale's opponent tomorrow and Harvard will battle a southern team, North Carolina. Cornell has Williams for its entertainment at Ithaca, and Princeton will go into what probably will be the hardest fought game of the afternoon when it tackles Tufts at Princeton. Notre Dame, another high standing team in the west, will battle the Haskell Indians at South Bend and Nebraska will tackle the Kansas Aggies at Lincoln.

John Mahlum Boosting Hughes

Des Moines Times: John M. Mahlum, the new secretary of the Mahlum Lumber company, is one of the most enthusiastic admirers of Chas. E. Hughes, the nominee for president, and is just itching to get into the campaign and do something for his friend, the former justice. He is now busy organizing a young men's Hughes club at Brainerd and when here the other day said: "When Burnquist opens the campaign in Brainerd, I want you to come down with every young man on the range. Our club will then be in good working order and we will show you a good time besides several very good reasons why every progressive young man should support Hughes for president."

TAYLOR FALLS FIREMAN AIDED

Northern Pacific Employee Finds Help in Tanlac

Howard Reynolds Makes Frank Statement Regarding His Experience With Master Medicine—"It's Surely Wonderful" He Asserts

Minneapolis, Minn., October 13—

Howard Reynolds, a resident of Taylor Falls, near this city, who is employed as a fireman by the Northern Pacific R. R. Co., told a story of Tanlac on September 30, that none will doubt.

"I have been bothered with stomach trouble since last February," he said. "I couldn't eat very much and was very nervous at night. I often suffered severe pains in my stomach and my back and shoulders pained me frequently. I tried many different medicines but none of them helped me at all."

"I read accounts of Tanlac's work in the newspapers and I bought a bottle of the medicine. I'm now taking my third bottle of Tanlac and I'm surely feeling much better. I can eat most anything now and the pains in my stomach do not bother me any more. In fact, my stomach trouble has almost been entirely banished."

"Tanlac certainly is a wonderful medicine. It has given me great relief and I'd advise anyone to try it."

"Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like and has proven a fine reconstructive tonic."

Tanlac is now being specially introduced and explained in Brainerd at Johnson's Pharmacy.—Advt.

The Seismograph.

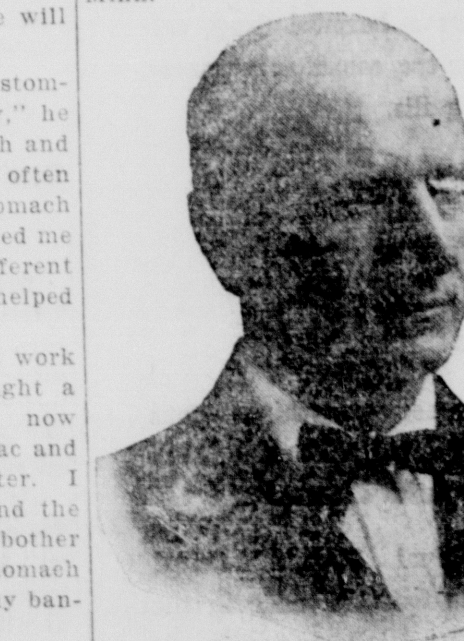

Though the man in the street might easily mistake a seismic disturbance for the rumbling of a traction engine or an explosion, the marvelously delicate instruments which record earthquake shocks are immune from such delusions. The recording pen of the seismometer ignores any local tremblings which have not a seismic origin, but the faintest real earth quakings, though they have traveled thousands of miles through the earth, set the pen tracing the telltale graph by means of which the seismologist calculates the place, time and magnitude of the happening—London Chronicle.

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of combustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and putrid-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject. Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health, while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

"MAD KING" OTTO OF BAVARIA DEAD

Copenhagen, Oct. 13.—King Otto of Bavaria, Europe's "mad king," died suddenly at the castle of Fuerstenreid, where he had been confined, insane, several years.

The "mad king" of Bavaria, seventy at the time of his death, started Europe with his eccentricities before he was declared incapable of ruling, Nov. 5, 1893, and was succeeded by his cousin, King Ludwig III.

He had succeeded his brother, King Ludwig II, in 1886, when Ludwig committed suicide by throwing himself into a lake during a fit of insanity. His uncle, the Regent Luitpold, was, however, the real ruler of Bavaria. Several years ago the king was imprisoned in the Fuerstenreid castle. Though in the midst of rich furnishings he is reported to have lived like a savage, refusing to have his hair or nails cut and avoiding water and soap.

There is no clue to the assailants.

CONTINUE FIGHT FOR BIGGER ARMY

Preparedness Campaign to Be Carried on Vigorously.

UNDERWOOD ON THE STUMP

Alabama Senator on Three Weeks' Campaigning Tour in the West—Negro Labor Problem Is Growing in South—Ragsdale in the Thick of the Political Warfare.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 14.—[Special.]—The campaign for preparedness was not completed with the army and naval programs adopted by the last session of congress. The agitators for a larger army have not forsaken their position, but with the coming session of congress their demands will be renewed and vigorously pressed.

"What's a million men?" asked a military man the other day in discussing the subject of an army. "The training of a million men will not make an army. If the United States means business it will train and have equipment for 4,000,000 men. If this country decides that it is going to remain on a peace basis there is no need of going any further or even in going as far as we have gone. Talk about getting a million men without resort to compulsory service is another idle dream. What has been done for the army does not amount to anything if we are ever to fight any one of the great powers engaged in the European war."

Laying the Foundations.

The advocates of a great army are laying the foundations for a strenuous campaign after the election is over. Of course they realize now that it would be useless to try to attract any attention to the subject of the unprepared condition of the United States, particularly when both parties are asserting that they have taken action which means military preparation. But as soon as the interest of the people can be attracted there will be a campaign under way still further to increase the military establishment of the United States.

Oscar Underwood Campaigning.

Senator Underwood passed through Washington on his way to a three weeks' campaign tour in the west. He was not entirely jubilant over the prospect, although the committee had given him good assignments. There are three accomplishments of the administration which Oscar Underwood will not make specialties in his campaign speeches—the Adamson law, the tariff commission and the duty levied on dyestuffs. Those three things Underwood opposed with great vigor when they were before the senate. He will specialize on other accomplishments of the administration while going through the western states.

When the Antis Scored.

That was a cruel blow by the Wilson women, or the anti-suffragists. I refer to the item that was published throughout the nation saying that the women on the Hughes special were getting fat. The blow almost killed mother. Think of 200 women traveling de luxe and 2,000,000 other women saying, "They're all getting fat!"

The Families Return.

The wives and children of congressmen are returning to Washington. The children must go to school whether there is a campaign in progress or not, and that accounts for the return to the capital of so many congressional families.

Negro Problem in the South.

The negro problem in the south no longer concerns itself with the franchise or the possible control of the blacks in politics, but the possibilities of labor. There has been a disposition on the part of the southern negroes to desert the fields and farms and seek employment in towns and at places where they can be more at ease. The demand for labor in the north and the high wages paid in that section are also proving very alluring to the negro, and the south fears an emigration of the colored race which may give them a great deal of trouble.

Heretofore the labor problem in the south has not required much attention, but if there should be anything like an exodus of negroes it would become a vital question in those states so dependent upon agriculture.

Takes His Medicine.

If there was one man in congress more independent than all others it was Ragsdale of South Carolina. He opposed the administration several times and in no half hearted way. When the time came for his re-nomination he found letters in his district from Secretary Tamm suggesting that some other man be chosen. In two campaigns Ragsdale has encountered the opposition of the administration for re-nomination.

But he does not sulk. He left his southern home and plunged into the campaign with energy.

Rumors From Cuba.

They have been tranquil in Cuba too long. Without a war or a revolution for several years there is a manifest disposition to "start something." Reports from the big island indicate that the Cubans may join other nations in letting blood.

Inter-Sectional Fray Features Pig-Skin Card

(By United Press)

New York, Oct. 13.—Aside from the interest which always centers in the activities of Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, Dartmouth and the other top-notch football teams of the east, Illinois university and Colgate university will hold the attention of football followers when they meet tomorrow afternoon at Urbana, Ill.

This will be the first meeting of Illinois and the husky easterners, who have been considered for some time one of the east's most powerful reasons why it should be counted first in football. Last year Colgate went through the season with only one defeat. In fact, the team was not scored upon save in its final game with Cornell, which it lost by a top-heavy score. The Army and Yale teams were two of its victims. Illinois split the honor of being big nine champions last year with Wisconsin, so the east and west will be sending two of the most powerful teams against each other. Lehigh, which hasn't done anything remarkable so far, will be Yale's opponent tomorrow and Harvard will battle a southern team, North Carolina. Cornell has Williams for its entertainment at Ithaca, and Princeton will go into what probably will be the hardest fought game of the afternoon when it tackles Tufts at Princeton. Notre Dame, another high standing team in the west, will battle the Haskell Indians at South Bend and Nebraska will tackle the Kansas Angies at Lincoln.

John Mahlum Boosting Hughes

Dearwood Times: John M. Mahlum, the new secretary of the Mahlum Lumber company, is one of the most enthusiastic admirers of Chas. E. Hughes, the nominee for president, and is just itching to get into the campaign and do something for his friend, the former justice. He is now busy organizing a young men's Hughes club at Brainerd and when here the other day said: "When Burnquist opens the campaign in Brainerd, I want you to come down with every young man on the range. Our club will then be in good working order and we will show you a good time besides several very good reasons why every progressive young man should support Hughes for president."

TAYLOR FALLS FIREMAN AIDED

Northern Pacific Employee Finds Help in Tanlac

OTHER REMEDIES FAILED

Howard Reynolds Makes Frank Statement Regarding His Experience With Master Medicine—

"It's Surely Wonderful"

He Asserts

Minneapolis, Minn., October 13.—Howard Reynolds, a resident of Taylor Falls, near this city, who is employed as a fireman by the Northern Pacific R. R. Co., told a story of Tanlac on September 30, that none will doubt.

"I have been bothered with stomach trouble since last February," he said. "I couldn't eat very much and was very nervous at night. I often suffered severe pains in my stomach and my back and shoulders pained me frequently. I tried many different medicines but none of them helped me at all."

"I read accounts of Tanlac's work in the newspapers and I bought a bottle of the medicine. I'm now taking my third bottle of Tanlac and I'm surely feeling much better. I can eat most anything now and the pains in my stomach do not bother me any more. In fact, my stomach trouble has almost been entirely banished."

"Tanalac certainly is a wonderful medicine. It has given me great relief and I'd advise anyone to try it." Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrh complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like and has proven a fine reconstructive tonic.

Tanalac is now being specially introduced and explained in Brainerd at Johnson's Pharmacy.—Adv.

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of combustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health, while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

Arnold Kalland, who injured his spine in an automobile accident October 4, was operated on Friday morning at the Northern Pacific hospital by Dr. A. W. Ide and Dr. John Evert. It was a delicate operation, as seven X-ray photographs had revealed that a bone had been shattered and was pressing against his spinal nerve and that his stomach organs had become paralyzed. He stood the shock of the operation with admirable grit and fortitude and his complete recovery is anticipated. He is a young Brainerd boy with hosts of friends.

LITTLE FALLS PREPARING

High School Football Squad Rounding into Shape for Game with
Local High Here Saturday

(Little Falls Transcript)
The high school football team is putting in some hard practice sessions this week in preparation for its game Saturday with Brainerd. The team has been going well in practice, and the backs, especially, have improved greatly on the offense. Tonight the regulars will line up against the second team at the fair grounds for scrimmage work.
Coach Liljedahl expects his team to beat Brainerd, although he predicts that it will be a tough battle. He says Little Falls should win by about two touchdowns. The game will be one of the hardest of the season and a big crowd is expected to turn out to see it.
The team will probably be stronger than it was last Saturday as Captain Levine, who wrenched his arm two weeks ago in the alumni game, is likely to get into the line-up, at least for a part of the game. The line-up will probably be the same as last Saturday, except that Levine will play left half if he is able to play. Dobbins will be shifted to full back and Richard, who played fullback last Saturday will probably go in at tackle or end. Tanner will again be at right half. Tanner and Levine will call signals.

O. E. Johnson, Former Resident of Brainerd Years Ago, Buys Home
on South Pine Street

O. E. Johnson, a former resident of Brainerd, has returned to the city and bought a nice home on the south side at 708 Pine street, from W. H. Britton. He has improved the interior, added a fine porch and garage, painted interior and exterior of his residence.

Eighteen years ago Mr. Johnson was employed as a clerk by Shipp Brothers, then located on Front street. He was with them eight years. Mr. Johnson then went to Florida, where he was six years. From there he removed to Duluth, where he conducted a hardware store in the West end for nine years.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are estimable people and Brainerd is glad to welcome them back.

"We Have Our Cots and Irish Stew,
Uncle Sam's Movie at the Llano
Grande Front

PRaised BY ADJT. W. O. FLODIN

"We Have Our Cots and Irish Stew,
Mosquito Nets and Ice Cream
Too," Says McCabe

Sergeant Ralph McIntyre, writing from K. C. field headquarters at Llano Grande, Texas, to Mr. and Mrs. P. E. McCabe, of this city, says:
"I must tell you we can hardly hold Ed down here, he is so thankful for all the good things that are coming to us. Peaches and nectarines from a little girl in California, Irene Orth, who used to live in Brainerd. A donation of towels from Mrs. Franklin Paine of London Road, Duluth, to Companies A. C. E.

"When a fellow gets a box we all follow him down the line. 'What you got?' is the query raised.

"One of the boys had a fruit cake sent him and we scraped the paper so as not to waste a crumb.

"Ed got hit by a scorpion, but he did not seem to make much of it and said it stung like four hornets. All the troops have composed little songs. New York claims the best, but Adjutant Walter O. Flodin, our old captain, says they have nothing on Private McCabe, the little Irishman from Brainerd, who is with Co. C of Duluth. He has a little song he sings at Uncle Sam's movie. It goes something like this:

Oh! U. S. A.!! I love you,
We have our cots and Irish stew,
Mosquito nets and ice cream too,
While we don't forget the River Shannon.

Just as present it's the Rio Grande,

Oh! U. S. A.!! I love you!

"Ed says my brother K. C.'s of Brainerd, did not forget me either, and showed me a receipt for his dues paid to October 1, 1917.

"We have a band now. They are doing fine and played for guard mount. There is a malaria scare. A few are sick, but not seriously. We take our quinine pill.

"The pass word is 'We Are Going Home Soon.' Buenos Dios."

At the Best Tonight

Throughout the world there are thousands of engineers sitting at the throttle-side of locomotives. Men, who in the face of duty know no fear. On their nerve, their judgment and their sense of responsibility, we rely as on no other class of men. The man in the engine cab is a praiseworthy citizen of whom everyone is proud.

House Peters as Jim Lewis, who plays the star part in this great railroad story "The Rail Rider," at the best tonight, proves that the man at the throttle is the man of the hour, when he comes face to face with a crisis.

It is a tremendous story, full of love and excitement that thrills, but does not disgust.

Somewhere in this picture you will find a heart throb that means something to your own life—it may prove the turning point for you.

MAY STOP THE BUS SERVICE

Tom Mansuras, Head of Lum Park Co., Announces Patronage Must Increase or He Will End It

WAS VERY WELL PATRONIZED

Two Cars Were Required to Handle
Passenger Traffic When Lum
Park was Open to Public

Tom Mansuras, head of the Lum Park buses, has announced that there must be a large increase of traffic or the service will be discontinued November 1.

The buses were kept busy in the summer season and while Lum park was largely patronized, but since the season is over at that amusement place, the use of the buses has fallen off.

If Mr. Mansuras is to continue serving Brainerd with its nearest approach to a street car service, there must be people to fill the seats and to ride the cars. Otherwise the buses cease to run, except probably on special trips.

"Where are My Children?"

Tyrone Power, the noted character actor who plays the part of Richard Walton, the prosecuting attorney in "Where are My Children?" the photoplay production that comes to the Empress theatre Oct. 26 for 3 days is one of the most effective actors in the country. Mr. Power during his career, appeared with Sir Henry Irving, Minnie Madden Fisk, Julia Marlow, Mrs. Leslie Carter and William Faversham. For several seasons he was featured in "The Servant in the House." In "Where are My Children?" he plays the part of the childless lawyer who secures a conviction of a society doctor for criminal operations only to learn that his own wife has been one of the doctor's principal patients.

Admission 25c. Children under 16 not admitted.

CRAZY MAN PICKED UP

A crazy man who scared South Long lake farmers and their wives and children and then emigrated to Vineland, was eventually picked up at the village of Ironton by Marshal George Ridley.

The stranger is red haired and evidently demented. He gave his name as George Maskovjak, and said he had been in a hospital at Bessemer, Mich., but a short time ago.

In Maskovjak's case it will be necessary to bring the matter before the state board of control, as the stranger has evidently not been in the state six months. The sheriff is inquiring about his antecedents and an examination as to his sanity will be conducted in the probate court.

It is unfortunate that it is so, but it is so, that the paths for going wrong are planted so prettily with flowers at the beginning.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. Fractured Bone Pressed on the Spinal

Become Paralyzed

Arnold Kalland, who injured his spine in an automobile accident October 4, was operated on Friday morning at the Northern Pacific hospital by Dr. A. W. Ide and Dr. John Evert. It was a delicate operation, as seven X-ray photographs had revealed that a bone had been shattered and was pressing against his spinal nerve and that his stomach organs had become paralyzed. He stood the shock of the operation with admirable grit and fortitude and his complete recovery is anticipated. He is a young Brainerd boy with hosts of friends.

LITTLE FALLS PREPARING

High School Football Squad Round-
ing into Shape for Game with
Local High Here Saturday
(Little Falls Transcript)

The high school football team is putting in some hard practice sessions this week in preparation for its game Saturday with Brainerd. The team has been going well in practice, and the backs, especially, have improved greatly on the offense. Tonight the regulars will line up against the second team at the fair grounds for scrimmage work.

Coach Liljedahl expects his team to beat Brainerd, although he predicts that it will be a tough battle. He says Little Falls should win by about two touchdowns. The game will be one of the hardest of the season and a big crowd is expected to turn out to see it.

The team will probably be stronger than it was last Saturday as Captain Levine, who wrenched his arm two weeks ago in the alumni game, is likely to get into the line-up, at least for a part of the game. The line-up will probably be the same as last Saturday, except that Levine will play left half if he is able to play. Doherty will be shifted to full back and Richard, who played fullback last Saturday will probably go in at tackle or end. Tanner will again be at right half. Tanner and Levine will call signals.

IMPROVES RESIDENCE

O. B. Johnson, Former Resident of Brainerd Years Ago, Buys Home
on South Pine Street

O. B. Johnson, a former resident of Brainerd, has returned to the city and bought a nice home on the south side at 708 Pine street, from W. H. Britton. He has improved the interior, added a fine porch and garage, painted interior and exterior of his residence.

Eighteen years ago Mr. Johnson was employed as a clerk by Slipp Brothers, then located on Front street. He was with them eight years. Mr. Johnson then went to Florida, where he was six years. From there he removed to Duluth, where he conducted a hardware store in the West end for nine years.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are estimable people and Brainerd is glad to welcome them back.

PRAISED BY ADJT. W. O. FLODIN

"We Have Our Cots and Irish Stew,
Mosquito Nets and Ice Cream
Too," Says McCabe

Sergeant Ralph McIntyre, writing from K. C. field headquarters at Llano Grande, Texas, to Mr. and Mrs. P. E. McCabe, of this city, says:

"I must tell you we can hardly hold Ed down here, he is so thankful for all the good things that are coming to us. Peaches and nectarines from a little girl in California, Irene Orth, who used to live in Brainerd. A donation of towels from Mrs. Franklin Paine of London Road, Duluth, to Companies A. C. E.

"When a fellow gets a box we all follow him down the line. 'What you got?' is the query raised.

"One of the boys had a fruit cake sent him and we scraped the paper so as not to waste a crumb.

"Ed got hit by a scorpion, but he did not seem to make much of it and said it stung like four hornets. All the troops have composed little songs. New York claims the best, but Adjutant Walter O. Flodin, our old captain, says they have nothing on Private McCabe, the little Irishman from Brainerd, who is with Co. C of Duluth. He has a little song he sings at Uncle Sam's movie. It goes something like this:

Oh! U. S. A! I love you,
We have our cots and Irish stew,
Mosquito nets and ice cream too,
While we don't forget the River Shannon,

Just as present it's the Rio Grande,
Oh! U. S. A! I love you!
"Ed says my brother K. C.'s of Brainerd, did not forget me either, and showed me a receipt for his dues paid to October 1, 1917.

"We have a band now. They are doing fine and played for guard mount. There is a malaria scare. A few are sick, but not seriously. We take our quinine pill.

"The pass word is 'We Are Going Home Soon.' Buenos Dios."

At the Best Tonight

Throughout the world there are thousands of engineers sitting at the throttle-side of locomotives. Men, who in the face of duty know no fear. On their nerve, their judgment and their sense of responsibility, we rely on no other class of men. The man in the engine cab is a praiseworthy citizen of whom everyone is proud.

House Peters as Jim Lewis, who plays the star part in this great railroad story "The Rail Rider," at the best tonight, proves that the man at the throttle is the man of the hour, when he comes face to face with a crisis.

It is a tremendous story, full of love and excitement that thrills, but does not disgust.

Somewhere in this picture you will find a heart throbbing that means something to your own life—it may prove the turning point for you.

Mexicans Capture Spies.

SAYS GERMANY WILL KEEP WORD

Steel Magnate Declares Drastic U-Boat Policy Is Ended.

TEUTONS FRIENDLY TO U. S.

Prominent Capitalist Believes Kaiser's Government Has Enemies Enough. His Statement Significant Because of His Connections.

Hamburg on the Rhine, Oct. 13.—That Germany will not take up submarine warfare again in the old or sharpened form is the opinion expressed by August Thyssen, the coal and steel magnate, who is in close touch with the empire's affairs. Herr Thyssen's assurance came in the form of an abrupt declaration—"Berlin will keep its word."

Herr Thyssen referred to Germany's promise to the United States and his definite statement may be regarded as having significance because the Rhineland is considered to be a hotbed of agitation for the resumption of a ruthless submarine campaign.

He did not say specifically the long-talked of resumption of submarine warfare has actually taken place, in the unlooked form of U-boat activity on the other side of the ocean, but he left that inference to be drawn.

Mistakes May Be Made.

"We want war with America under no circumstances," he said. "In the first place, we have enemies enough; in the second place, we feel too friendly toward America."

"Germany's U-boat warfare off Canada undoubtedly is disagreeable for Americans."

The reference to U-boat warfare off Canada is the first intimation of submarine activity along the Canadian coast.

BIG LINER ELUDES RAIDING SUBMARINE

Boston, Oct. 13.—The White Star liner Canopic, for which some anxiety has been felt in shipping circles because of the presence in the North Atlantic of a German submarine, arrived here from Mediterranean ports. Her officers reported they had not seen the U-boat.

Captain Metcalf said the Canopic had been informed by wireless of the submarine raid off Nantucket and he had avoided the usual course in his run for Massachusetts bay.

Adriatic Sails Southward.

New York, Oct. 13.—With all lights extinguished, the steamship Adriatic of the White Star line, carrying 353 passengers and 18,000 tons of war munitions, is believed to be speeding south from this port, well within the three-mile zone of safety. Its announced destination is Liverpool. It apparently followed in the wake of the freight-laden Pannonia and Minnehaha.

Steamer Kingstonian Safe.

Boston, Oct. 13.—The British steamer Kingstonian, reported as among those torpedoed by a German submarine off Nantucket Sunday, is safe in port, according to word received by John M. Thomas of this city, local manager of the Leyland line, which owns the steamer.

DUTCH EXPECT DISAVOWAL

Foreign Minister Believes Sinking of Bloomersdijk Was Mistake.

The Hague, Oct. 13.—"I cannot believe the sinking of the Bloomersdijk will be upheld by the German government," Minister of Foreign Affairs Louden declared here.

"If Admiral von Tirpitz had been at the head of affairs in Germany it would be understandable," added the foreign minister, "but I do not believe it of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg, and I fully expect—nay, I am sure—Germany will disavow the act of her commander and tender reparation for this absolutely unjustifiable act."

UNDERTAKERS DISCUSS HIGH COST OF DYING.

Columbus, O., Oct. 13.—While the cost of living is jumping every minute the National Funeral Directors' association, in session here, is discussing the high cost of dying.

Once more the war is at blame.

High chemical cost and the lack of dyes for shrouds are responsible for proposed increased funeral costs.

ASKS PROSECUTION OF BANK PROMOTERS

Washington, Oct. 12.—Seeking to head off what they believe is developing into one of the greatest financial frauds the United States has known, the federal farm loan board has asked the aid of the department of justice.

Clear across the continent in a strip of states from Virginia to California, the board reported organizations, either deliberately fraudulent or at best illegal, have sprung up for the purpose of defrauding farmers through their ignorance of the new rural credits act. In one single instance, it is said, the farmers have lost $350,000.

Governors and members of congress have been made unwitting parties to some of these illegal operations, it is said.

Prominent men have been involved, their names being used in some cases to lend respectability.

The board believes it will be able to prosecute successfully. Some time ago it announced a ruling that no proposed joint stock land bank will be chartered if it has spent money for promotion. This was designed to hold the expense of operation down so the interest rates may be the lowest possible. In the face of this ruling, it is said, promoters have continued to sell stock in proposed land banks and to take parts of the proceeds for their own services.

One of the concerns failed before it could even have applied for a charter, but it had sold to farmers stock to the amount of several hundred thousand dollars.

The board would not make public the names of the concerns to which it is calling the justice department's attention, and refused to give their localities.

TOY WITH SHELL, TWO HURT

Border Soldiers Throw Explosive on Fire—Land in Hospital.

Douglas, Ariz., Oct. 13.—George Beeck, a private in F company, Fifth New Jersey infantry, sustained a compound fracture of the left leg, and John Main, a private in the same company, has several severe flesh wounds as the result of the explosion of a three-inch shell thrown on a campfire. Both men were placed in the base hospital.

BLOW UP DAM TO SAVE CITY

Residents of Decatur, Ill., Take Law Into Own Hands.

Decatur, Ill., Oct. 13.—Carrying four sticks of dynamite and with a number of shovels two automobiles loaded with prominent citizens, including city officials, left Decatur at midnight.

They proceeded to the farm of J. K. Peck, near Cerro Gordo, and exploded the dynamite under a dam, releasing thousands of gallons of water.

The dam had been built by Peck to change the course of the Sangamon river, which flowed over his place.

He succeeded in changing the course, but backed up so much water that Decatur's water supply was threatened.

UPRISING SPREADS IN WESTERN MEXICO

Douglas, Ariz., Oct. 13.—Revolutionary disturbances in the west coast states of Mexico, including Sinaloa, Tepic, Jalisco and Colim, are spreading rapidly, according to private advices from Nogales. Fighting between Carranza troops and members of the Legalista party have been frequent, while the number of unattached bandit bands have greatly increased.

The Twenty-seventh battalion of infantry, stationed in Tepic, revolted recently, killed its officers and joined the Alvarez brothers, bandits, it was reported.

FRANCE RECEPTIVE TO AMERICAN TRADE

Paris, Oct. 13.—Six weeks of inquiry by the American industrial commission to France investigating economic conditions has disclosed an active disposition everywhere toward the increase of French trade with the United States.

"The greatest obstacle Americans will encounter," William Wallace Nichols, chairman of the commission, said, in summarizing his personal impressions, "is in themselves, in their own lack of knowledge about France and their hesitation in availing themselves of opportunities here. The investigation has been most instructive for us."

The commission has been cordially received and entertained in various parts of France.

He Didn't Know.

One June day in 1862 near Fredericksburg, Va., General Stonewall Jackson saw one of General Hood's Texans climbing a fence to get into a cherry tree. "Where are you going?" shouted Jackson. "I don't know," replied the soldier. "To what command do you belong?" "I don't know," the Texan replied. "Well, what state are you from?" "I don't know," Jackson gave the man up, but he asked a comrade what it all meant. "Well," was the reply, "Old Stonewall and General Hood gave orders yesterday that we were not to know anything until after the next fight."

The soldier was left to his cherries.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 50-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Crocodiles and Alligators.

The true crocodiles are distinct from the alligators. Among the points of distinction the following are the most noticeable: In the crocodiles the so called canine tooth, the fourth counting from the front, fits into a notch in the side of the upper jaw and is therefore visible when the mouth is closed, while in the alligator it is received in a pit in the upper jaw and is therefore invisible or nearly so. Again, in the crocodile the hind legs have a fringe of fattened scales which is wanting in the alligators, whose legs are round.—London Saturday Review.

SAYS GERMANY WILL KEEP WORD

Steel Magnate Declares Drastic U-Boat Policy is Ended.

TEUTONS FRIENDLY TO U. S.

Prominent Capitalist Believes Kaiser's Government Has Enemies Enough. His Statement Significant Because of His Connections.

Hamborn on the Rhine, Oct. 13.—That Germany will not take up submarine warfare again in the old or sharpened form is the opinion expressed by August Thyssen, the coal and steel magnate, who is in close touch with the empire's affairs. Herr Thyssen's assurance came in the form of an abrupt declaration—"Berlin will keep its word."

Herr Thyssen referred to Germany's promise to the United States and his definite statement may be regarded as having significance because the Rhine-land is considered to be a hotbed of agitation for the resumption of a ruthless submarine campaign.

He did not say specifically the long-talked of resumption of submarine warfare has actually taken place, in the unlooked form of U-boat activity on the other side of the ocean, but he left that inference to be drawn.

Mistakes May Be Made.

"Germany's U-boat warfare off Canada undoubtedly is disagreeable for Americans."

The reference to U-boat warfare off Canada is the first intimation of submarine activity along the Canadian coast.

BIG LINER ELUDES RAIDING SUBMARINE

Boston, Oct. 13.—The White Star liner Canopic, for which some anxiety has been felt in shipping circles because of the presence in the North Atlantic of a German submarine, arrived here from Mediterranean ports. Her officers reported they had not seen the U-boat.

Captain Metcalf said the Canopic had been informed by wireless of the submarine raid off Nantucket and he had avoided the usual course in his run for Massachusetts bay.

Adriatic Sails Southward.

New York, Oct. 13.—With all lights extinguished, the steamship Adriatic of the White Star line, carrying 353 passengers and 18,000 tons of war munitions, is believed to be speeding south from this port, well within the three-mile zone of safety. Its announced destination is Liverpool. It apparently followed in the wake of the freight-laden Pannonia and Minnehaha.

Steamer Kingstonian Safe.

Boston, Oct. 13.—The British steamer Kingstonian, reported as among those torpedoed by a German submarine off Nantucket Sunday, is safe in port, according to word received by John M. Thomas of this city, local manager of the Leyland line, which owns the steamer.

DUTCH EXPECT DISAVOWAL

Foreign Minister Believes Sinking of Bloomersdijk Was Mistake.

The Hague, Oct. 13.—"I cannot believe the sinking of the Bloomersdijk will be upheld by the German government," Minister of Foreign Affairs Londen declared here.

"If Admiral von Tirpitz had been at the head of affairs in Germany it would be understandable," added the foreign minister, "but I do not believe it of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg, and I fully expect—may, I am sure—Germany will disavow the act of her commander and tender reparation for this absolutely unjustifiable act."

UNDERTAKERS DISCUSS HIGH COST OF DYING.

Columbus, O., Oct. 13.—While the cost of living is jumping every minute the National Funeral Directors' association, in session here, is discussing the high cost of dying.

Once more the war is at blame.

High chemical cost and the lack of dyes for shrouds are responsible for proposed increased funeral costs.

ASKS PROSECUTION OF BANK PROMOTERS

Washington, Oct. 13.—Seeking to head off what they believe is developing into one of the greatest financial frauds the United States has known, the federal farm loan board has asked the aid of the department of justice.

Clear across the continent in a strip of states from Virginia to California, the board reported organizations, either deliberately fraudulent or at best illegal, have sprung up for the purpose of defrauding farmers through their ignorance of the new rural credits act. In one single instance, it is said, the farmers have lost $350,000.

Governors and members of congress have been made unwitting parties to some of these illegal operations, it is said.

Prominent men have been involved, their names being used in some cases to lend respectability.

The board believes it will be able to prosecute successfully. Some time ago it announced a ruling that no proposed joint stock land bank will be chartered if it has spent money for promotion. This was designed to hold the expense of operation down so the interest rates may be the lowest possible. In the face of this ruling, it is said, promoters have continued to sell stock in proposed land banks and to take parts of the proceeds for their own services.

One of the concerns failed before it could even have applied for a charter, but it had sold to farmers stock to the amount of several hundred thousand dollars.

The board would not make public the names of the concerns to which it is calling the justice department's attention, and refused to give their localities.
